Celebrating Kim Sorrells' Ordination

Kimberly Nichole Sorrells was ordained to the Christian ministry at Central Congregational Church United Church of Christ on February 23, 2014. Kim is serving as Minister to Children and Youth at St. Mark United Methodist Church in Atlanta. One of the great joys of the ordination service was the presence of members and youth from St. Mark including a joint choir.

Kim is originally from Birmingham, Alabama, but moved to Georgia to attend Berry College, where she majored in religion and minored in Psychology. Kim came to Atlanta to serve in AmeriCorps at Metro Atlanta Taskforce for the Homeless and Midtown Assistance Center. She graduated from Candler School of Theology with a Masters of Divinity in 2011.
